V. New BusinessA. Review of the Density District Priority Business Loan Fund Program — Discussion

Bohn explained that the meeting agenda packet includes a memorandum concerning the Committee's review of the Downtown Density District Priority Business Loan Fund (PB-LF).

Key Discussion Points1. Loan Program Structure & Purpose

The IURA currently manages several small loan programs, originally created for different purposes over the past decades. Only two programs are actively used today:

- Citywide CD Revolving Loan Fund (gap financing, capped at $100–150k, prohibits >35% alcohol sales)

- Priority Business Loan Fund (more flexible, supports alcohol-related businesses, targeted to the downtown density district)

Members questioned if so many separate loan programs are in fact needed, given the small available loan balance (~$250k).

2. Outdated 2007 Priority Business List

The current list of priority business types (from 2007) is widely considered outdated and overly narrow.

Committee members agreed that:

- The list should be replaced with broad categories and program goals, not specific business types.
- The loan program should encourage flexibility rather than restrict applicants.

3. Incorporating Retail Study Findings

A recent City-funded retail study highlighted promising sectors like:

- Arts & entertainment
- Destination food & beverage
- Vintage/consignment retail
- Diversified entertainment

Members agreed these areas may be more realistic and impactful than trying to attract “essential services” like pharmacies or groceries. They also recognized challenges with locating a downtown grocery, particularly due to delivery logistics and competition from Wegmans and Aldi.

4. Alcohol & Cannabis Eligibility

The committee discussed loosening or removing the CD Fund’s 35% alcohol-sales limit, which prevents aiding many restaurants and bars. Cannabis businesses may also need future policy consideration as State rules evolve.

5. Equity & Inclusion

Support for underrepresented business owners should remain a priority, regardless of the specific business type.

6. Loan Fund Constraints

HUD’s $35,000-per-job funding requirement still applies. Loan underwriting and risk management remain concerns, but Committee members expressed a preference for flexible, case-by-case review, rather than rigid prohibitions.

7. Next Steps

Staff will:

- Draft a revised loan program framework with broad eligibility categories.
- Consider alcohol and cannabis policy updates.
- Share drafts with the Downtown Ithaca Alliance for feedback.

Future consolidation of unused IURA loan products may take place after the main loan program has been updated.

VI. Old/Other Business

A. IURA Financials Review: December 2025

Bohn reported that all loan payments and lease payments are current. Bohn reviewed the Grants summary, explaining that the left-hand “On Schedule” column calls out any projects (with a NO) that are not progressing on schedule due to delays or limitations, and any issues are being addressed.

B. Staff Report

Bohn reported that the IURA is in the process of hiring a replacement for former IURA Accountant Kim Cook.

VII. Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned by consensus at 4:42 P.M.

Dear Ms. Cohen,

I am writing to you to express Associate for Training and Development's (A4TD) support for Finger Lakes ReUse's project to expand their work with local people facing barriers to employment, through the ReUse Skills and Employment Training (ReSET) program. ReSET is a job training opportunity that helps individuals throughout Tompkins County gain soft and hard skills in a supportive, comfortable work environment.

A4TD operates the Senior Community Service Employment Program (SCSEP) in Tompkins County. SCSEP serves age 55+, unemployed, low-income individuals with barriers to employment by offering skills training that will prepare them to re-enter the workforce. SCSEP is a work-based training program, enrolling eligible individuals in part-time, paid training positions at public agencies or 501c3 non-profit organizations in their local communities. Participants assigned to Finger Lakes ReUse find a flexible, supportive, and inclusive work environment.

On behalf of A4TD, we look forward to growing our partnership with Finger Lakes ReUse, and I appreciate your consideration of their application for funding.

Dear Ms. Cohen,

I am writing to you as a representative of TST-BOCES to express our support for Finger Lakes ReUse's project to expand its work with local people facing barriers to employment. TST-BOCES partners with ReUse in multiple ways related to workforce development. We place students at their ReUse Centers to gain work experience while offering one-on-one coaching at the job site. We also partner with them as part of the Career Pathways Project, which aims to increase green energy career development, and by referring individuals to have work and volunteer experiences at their ReUse Centers.

Dear Ms. Cohen,

On behalf of Cornell Cooperative Extension of Tompkins County, I am writing to express our support for the continued success of Finger Lakes ReUse's job training (ReSET) program. Their proposed project will continue to create urgently needed training opportunities for unemployed, underemployed, and vulnerable local people, serving an important need in our community.

Cornell Cooperative Extension Association of Tompkins County (CCE Tompkins) has partnered closely with ReUse to expand training opportunities for green jobs through our national Roots of Success curriculum offering. ReUse regularly refers participants to our training, and we, in turn, refer our participants seeking additional paid job training opportunities to ReUse's ReSET program. Over the last few years, this collaboration has built a truly unique program that provides pathways into multiple careers, including in green construction, energy technology, and retail.

Dr. Aloja Airewele, the Energy Warriors leader, is coordinating this collaboration between Cornell Cooperative Extension and Finger Lakes ReUse. Energy Warriors has formed solid partnerships with community-based organizations to deliver effective job training and help participants find meaningful, sustainable career pathways.

CCE Tompkins looks forward to continuing its partnership with Finger Lakes ReUse and asks that you give its request for funding the strongest possible consideration.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Cohen,

I am writing in strong support of Finger Lakes ReUse's request for funding and to highlight the strength of our ongoing partnership between ReUse and the Greater Ithaca Activities Center's Hospitality Employment Training Program (HETP).

At GIAC, our focus is clear — we work with adults who are underemployed, unemployed, and often navigating multiple barriers to employment. Our role is to build job readiness, strengthen soft skills, address real-life challenges, and help participants move toward sustainable employment. Finger Lakes ReUse plays a critical next-step role in that journey. While our programs serve different functions, they work hand in hand.

Through HETP, we regularly refer participants to the ReSET job training program at Ithaca ReUse when they are ready for more hands-on, skill-based experience. ReSET provides practical, lived-experience training in a supportive and flexible environment. Participants benefit from both classroom learning and on-the-job training, allowing them to build confidence, strengthen transferable skills, and prepare for permanent employment.

The ReSET program is especially impactful for individuals facing employment barriers because it offers specialized training in reuse, repair, and sustainability. These skills not only complement the foundational employment preparation participants receive through HETP, but they also open doors to green career pathways that support both economic mobility and environmental responsibility.

On behalf of GIAC and the Hospitality Employment Training Program, we value this partnership and look forward to continuing to strengthen it. An investment in Finger Lakes ReUse is an investment in coordinated, community-based workforce development. I respectfully ask that their funding request receive strong consideration, as it will create meaningful, long-term impact for the individuals and families we collectively serve.

Sincerely,

Lonnie Jenkins, HETP Program Coordinator

Dear Ms. Cohen,

I am writing to you as a representative of Tompkins County Workforce Development to express our strong support for Finger Lakes ReUse's project to expand its work with local people facing barriers to employment. We look forward to continuing to work with Finger Lakes ReUse in the coming year.

Tompkins County Workforce Development helps job seekers access employment, education, training, and supportive services so residents can obtain living wage jobs and support a thriving, inclusive, and sustainable economy. The Tompkins Workforce New York Career Center provides a full range of assistance and programs including job services for high-needs young adults, adult and dislocated workers, and people with disabilities.

We have been an active partner in their ReSET job training program since its founding in 2013, and we continue to partner with them through referrals. In 2025, we placed 5 youth at their Community ReUse Centers throughout the year through our JobLink program and 15 youth in our Summer Youth Employment Program (SYEP).

Our youth programs are dynamic and include paid work experiences where young people explore their interests, discover exciting career pathways, and develop essential workplace skills at various job sites throughout the County. Beyond earning a paycheck, participants engage in enriching learning experiences that strengthen their social, civic, and leadership capabilities, setting them up for future success. Finger Lakes ReUse has been an invaluable partner in making these experiences possible and in helping set our young people up for future success.

Finger Lakes ReUse is more than a workforce partner. They are a cornerstone of our community. Their commitment to creating real opportunities for people facing barriers to employment reflects the kind of inclusive, mission-driven work that makes Tompkins County stronger. Expanding their training opportunities would have a meaningful and lasting impact on the lives of our residents. On behalf of Tompkins County Workforce Development, we wholeheartedly urge you to fund this application.

Dear Ms. Cohen,

I am writing on behalf of the Personalized Recovery Oriented Services (PROS) program at Tompkins County Whole Health to affirm our continued partnership and support for Finger Lakes ReUse's RESET apprenticeship program. Their request for funds to expand their work, aligns closely with PROS' mission and our community-wide effort to assist individuals facing barriers to employment in securing quality, long-term employment.

PROS is a recovery-oriented mental health services program developed and administered by New York State Office of Mental Health (OMH) that offers employment and workforce readiness supports, often referring participants to the RESET job training program, where green apprenticeships offer underserved individuals accessible opportunities for structured training and real-world work experience.

RESET training is popular with PROS participants, who are eager to experience ReUse's inclusive workplace culture and gain in-demand skills that prepare them for green career pathways.

The RESET job training program at Finger Lakes ReUse is a unique, community-based program serving individuals with barriers to employment. The proposed program expansion supported by these funds reinforces PROS contribution to the mental health and stability of vulnerable young people, while strengthening their skill development, work readiness, and long-term employability.

PROS looks forward to continued collaboration and growth in partnership with Finger Lakes ReUse and respectfully asks that their application for funding be given favorable consideration.

Dear Ms. Cohen,

I am writing to you on behalf of The Village at Ithaca, to express our support for Finger Lakes ReUse's project to expand their work with local people facing barriers to employment.

We envision a community where all youth and families are seen, heard, valued and thriving.

The Village at Ithaca participants who connect to opportunities at ReUse gain valuable work skills, communication techniques, and confidence to boost them on their journey toward permanent employment. PROJECT DESCRIPTION

In the space below, provide a clear project summary that includes a description of the proposed project. Include the Census tract number in which the project will be located (see Application Instructions). If your project includes job placement, list your employer partners and describe the commitments they have made to the project.

The Hospitality Employment Training Program (HETP) provides barrier-informed workforce training to unemployed and underemployed adults (18+) in Tompkins County, with a focus on City of Ithaca residents. Through staff expertise and community partnerships, HETP prepares participants for employment in hospitality, customer service, childcare, and office administration. In this program year, HETP will train 20 job seekers and place at least 14 into employment. Since 2014, HETP has delivered a comprehensive training model that combines classroom instruction, hands-on experience, and wraparound supports. Participants build job readiness skills, gain industry exposure, and access supportive services that promote long-term self-sufficiency and well-being. The program functions as a bridge between job seekers and employers by pairing classroom training with structured internships supported by formal worksite agreements, ensuring accountability for both participants and employers while responding directly to local workforce needs.

HETP has served 235 adults since its inception, including both walk-in clients and full program participants. Of those served, 25% are ages 18–24, 45% identify as Black/African American, and 28% identify as Asian, Latino, or multi-ethnic—populations that face persistent employment barriers and are often under served by traditional workforce programs. More recently, participants with significant language barriers have utilized HETP alongside English as a Second Language classes to strengthen their English skills, build cultural familiarity, and expand professional networks in support of employment goals.

A core component of HETP is addressing the barriers that interfere with employment stability, particularly childcare, transportation, and overall well-being. Program staff have developed new classroom curriculum focused on self-management and well-being, including wellness, emotional regulation, motivation, organization, time management, and decision-making. Professional partners such as Tompkins Whole Health and the Mental Health Association support this work by providing expertise when participants require additional guidance.

Childcare access remains one of the most significant barriers to employment, and HETP is intentionally expanding its impact in this area in 2026. Staff assist participants with securing and funding childcare, navigating applications, and advocating for consistent care, including providing on-site childcare support when needed. Through partnerships with the Child Development Council, Ithaca Community Childcare Center, and Downtown Ithaca Children's Center, HETP also aims to place participants into childcare employment—either with established providers or by supporting individuals interested in opening in-home childcare programs.

Transportation is another critical focus area. HETP supports participants through bus passes, access to GIAC vehicles, refurbished bicycles, driver education, and instruction on local transportation options. Representatives from TCAT, the Human Services Coalition (211), and the Tompkins County Department of Transportation meet directly with cohorts to provide transportation education, register participants for GO Ithaca, and offer one-on-one coaching to ensure participants can effectively navigate available resources.

As workforce shortages continue across hospitality, childcare, and service sectors—particularly for second- and third-shift positions—HETP addresses an urgent and growing need for skilled, supported workers in Tompkins County. With more than 11 years of demonstrated success, the program delivers measurable outcomes that extend beyond job placement, including improved job retention, increased workplace readiness, and pathways to stable wages and career advancement. Participants—many of whom are parents, young adults, immigrants, and individuals from historically marginalized communities—benefit from a program intentionally designed to reduce inequities through language access, barrier removal, and individualized support. HETP qualifies as a work requirement to maintain social service benefits such as SNAP, Cash Assistance, Housing and more.

Program activities are primarily based at GIAC in Census Tract 8 and are supported by a strong network of community agencies, presenters, and employer partners. Continued investment in HETP will allow the program to expand training capacity, deepen childcare and transportation supports, and strengthen employer partnerships—ensuring both participants and local businesses are positioned for long-term, sustainable success.

Explain how the amount of funding requested is justified, taking into account other available sources of funding for the project type. Explain how, and when, the cost estimates for the project were prepared. Provide the name, title, company name, and qualifications of the individual who prepared the cost estimates.

The funding request reflects HETP's proven effectiveness and current economic conditions impacting job seekers and employers in Tompkins County. While the IURA requires one employment placement per $35,000 funded, HETP consistently exceeds this benchmark. With $100,000 in requested funding, HETP will recruit and train 20 participants and place at least 14 into meaningful employment. Employers contribute by providing internships, business tours, workshops, and training activities that are provided at no cost to participants. Additionally, HETP has secured funding from the Strategic Planning Tourism Board, The United Way, and the City of Ithaca.

Rising costs of living, increases to the local living wage, and growing childcare and transportation barriers have intensified the level of support required for successful workforce participation. HETP's wraparound service model responds directly to these conditions through individualized case management, barrier removal, quality curriculum, and paid work-based learning, while leveraging community resources and avoiding duplication of services. Project costs were developed using updated local wage and support cost data. They were prepared by HETP Program Coordinator Lonnie Jenkins, with support from GIAC Director Leslyn McBean-Clairborne.

Is the proposed activity located in the Flood Hazard Area? Yes ☐ No ☒

- If so, in the space below, describe how your plans for the project take this into account.

Does the project require coordination with, or participation of, another entity or organization (including employer partners)? If so, how will you ensure the project's successful and timely completion?

Yes, the project requires coordination with multiple employer and community partners to ensure timely and successful completion. Employer partners are central to HETP's internships, a direct pathway to permanent employment in Tompkins County. Employers host internships to fill open positions and support workforce development. HETP staff maintain regular communication, monitor participant progress, and assist employers in building inclusive, effective supervision practices.

HETP also collaborates with local agencies to address participant needs, with emphasis on childcare, transportation, and well-being. Partners include the Women's Opportunity Center (WOC), Finger Lakes ReUse, Ithaca Area Economic Development (IAED), Strategic Tourism Planning Board (STPB), Tompkins Chamber, Family Self-Sufficiency (FSS), and Human Services Coalition (HSC). Childcare partners—IC3, DICCC, and the Child Development Council—support participant childcare needs and workforce placement in childcare. The Mental Health Association provides well-being expertise and referrals. Additional partners, including Tompkins Workforce Center, Workforce NY, Alternatives Federal Credit Union, MidState Cosh, CDRC, Visit Ithaca, and Cornell Dining, offer workshops, referrals, and ongoing support, ensuring coordinated services and program completion.

POPULATION SERVED & PROJECT IMPACT

If your project will provide job training and placement, describe the population the project will serve, being sure to include income levels (i.e., 30% AMI, 50% AMI, 80% AMI), and any special needs. How has the project been designed to address the specific needs of this population?

The Hospitality Employment Training Program (HETP) serves low- and moderate-income adults age 18 and older residing in Tompkins County who meet CDBG income eligibility guidelines. More than 80% of participants are below 80% of Area Median Income (AMI), with many falling at or below 50%.

The population served includes individuals with disabilities, formerly incarcerated individuals, adults experiencing homelessness or housing instability, individuals in substance use recovery, those with mental health challenges, and participants facing language barriers or chronic employment instability.

HETP is intentionally designed to address these layered challenges through individualized, barrier-informed services. Each participant meets one-on-one with staff to assess needs and develop a personalized employment action plan. Weekly case management sessions ensure progress is monitored and barriers are addressed in real time. The program provides coordinated referrals for housing support, childcare assistance, transportation resources, healthcare, and other essential services to stabilize participants so they can fully engage in training.

Targeted interventions are tailored to specific needs. Young adults receive workplace readiness and mentoring support; individuals reentering society receive assistance navigating legal and employment restrictions; and participants managing disabilities, mental health conditions, or substance use disorders are supported through accommodations, healthcare referrals, and coordination with service providers. Through this holistic, person-centered model, HETP builds pathways toward long-term economic stability.

Explain the project goal(s). How will each goal be measured and documented to confirm whether or not it has been met?

The primary goal of the Hospitality Employment Training Program (HETP) is to prepare unemployed and underemployed adults in Tompkins County for sustainable employment in hospitality, childcare, customer service, and office administration. For this funding cycle, HETP will train 20 participants and place at least 14 into employment. This goal will be measured through participant completion of classroom instruction, required workshops, and internship hours. Progress is tracked using the HETP Program Completion Matrix, which documents attendance, participation, soft-skill development, internship benchmarks, and movement from intake to completion status. Weekly one-on-one case management meetings further document individual progress and readiness. Completion is confirmed when participants meet required training hours, demonstrate workplace competencies, and fulfill their individualized action plan goals.

HETP addresses barriers related to childcare, transportation, housing instability, and overall well-being. Progress toward barrier reduction is documented through case management notes, completed referrals, transportation supports issued, childcare arrangements secured, and engagement with partner agencies. Advancement within the Program Completion Matrix also reflects increased stability and employment readiness.

Employment outcomes are measured and documented through employer verification, offer letters, or pay stubs. Internship host evaluations and executed worksite agreements provide additional documentation of job readiness. HETP conducts follow-up communication with both participants and employers to track short-term retention, confirm continued employment, and address any emerging barriers.

Together, the Program Completion Matrix, Trainee Certification Chart, employer documentation, and case management records provide quantifiable evidence of training completion, barrier reduction, job placement, and retention—confirming whether project goals have been successfully met.

Will your project advance the City's goal of ending and preventing homelessness? How?

Yes — HETP will advance the City's goal of ending and preventing homelessness by addressing key drivers of housing instability through workforce readiness, barrier reduction, and coordinated support. In Tompkins County, housing affordability challenges continue to worsen: over half of renters are cost-burdened (spending more than 30% of income on housing) and nearly 38% are severely cost-burdened (more than half of income), with rental and home prices rising substantially in recent years. These conditions contribute to longer episodes of homelessness and make exiting homelessness more difficult.

HETP targets adults facing employment barriers — including those experiencing housing instability — and connects employment outcomes to greater housing stability and homelessness prevention. Sustainable employment is widely recognized as one of the strongest predictors of housing retention; increased income allows participants to afford rising rents and reduces the risk of falling into homelessness. HETP's weekly case management helps participants address barriers like transportation, childcare, and housing needs in real time, connecting them to supportive services and referrals that stabilize their circumstances early. Financial education is offered in one on one sessions and as a training with Alternatives Credit Union.

By training participants for livable-wage jobs, placing them in employment, and coordinating wraparound supports (e.g., childcare navigation, housing referrals, benefit access, financial literacy), HETP directly increases participants' economic stability — a core factor in preventing homelessness. As the local homeless response system reports long shelter stays and low exits into permanent housing partly due to scarce affordable housing and high costs, HETP's model mitigates this by equipping individuals with the income and supports needed to secure and maintain housing rather than cycling through emergency systems. Through its person-centered, employment-focused approach, HETP contributes to reducing both the incidence and duration of homelessness in the community.

Will your project advance the City's goal of moving people out of poverty? How?

Yes — HETP advances the City's goal of moving people out of poverty by addressing both economic and personal barriers to sustainable employment. Many participants face underemployment alongside challenges such as mental health instability, inconsistent routines, limited work history, childcare needs, transportation barriers, and housing instability.

HETP provides hands-on job readiness training, soft skill development, industry exposure, and individualized case management that help participants build consistent daily routines, strengthen confidence, and develop the coping, communication, and workplace skills necessary for a healthy, sustainable work life. Milestone-based stipends tied to program completion provide immediate financial support to cover essentials such as transportation and childcare while reinforcing accountability, engagement, and consistency.

By connecting participants to livable-wage employment, supporting job retention, and providing wraparound services that stabilize housing, childcare, and health needs, HETP increases income and economic self-sufficiency. Through this holistic approach, the program equips participants to move out of poverty and achieve long-term stability for themselves and their families.

PROMOTION OF FAIR HOUSING

How will your project address any of the factors contributing (“Contributing Factors”) to fair housing issues and problems in the City of Ithaca? Refer to: Explanation of IURA Assessment of Fair Housing Contributing Factors document.

HETP addresses several contributing factors to fair housing challenges in the City of Ithaca by strengthening economic stability, increasing housing literacy, and reducing barriers that disproportionately impact low-income households and marginalized communities.

Many HETP participants enter the program with low or no income and face housing instability driven by cost burden, limited affordable inventory, discrimination, and difficulty navigating complex systems. By providing barrier-informed workforce training, job placement support, stipends tied to program milestones, and individualized case management, HETP increases income stability and strengthens participants' ability to secure and maintain housing. Consistent employment and predictable earnings are among the strongest protections against eviction and housing displacement.

Beyond employment, HETP supports participants in navigating public benefits, childcare access, transportation systems, and housing resources. The program connects participants to agencies that protect tenant rights and address discriminatory practices, helping them understand source-of-income protections and how to advocate for themselves. Partnerships with organizations such as the Mental Health Association expand access to wellbeing supports, recognizing that mental health instability can directly affect housing retention and the ability to navigate landlord relationships.

HETP's curriculum further develops communication, conflict resolution, financial literacy, and cultural competency skills. These competencies strengthen participants' ability to engage in lease negotiations, manage household finances, resolve disputes, and recognize discriminatory treatment. By combining economic mobility strategies with practical housing navigation skills and community referrals, HETP works to reduce systemic barriers that contribute to fair housing inequities and promotes long-term housing stability for adults facing employment and income disparities in Ithaca and Tompkins County.

ORGANIZATIONAL CAPACITY

Describe your organization's experience in successfully implementing projects of similar scope and comparable complexity to the proposed project.

The Greater Ithaca Activities Center (GIAC) has extensive experience operating community-based programs serving children, youth, adults, and seniors. HETP has operated successfully since 2014, providing workforce development services to adults facing barriers such as housing instability, mental health challenges, limited education, and economic hardship. The program manages structured training, employer partnerships, stipends, case management, and wraparound supports — demonstrating the capacity to implement projects of similar scope and complexity.

As a department of the City of Ithaca, GIAC operates within established municipal systems for fiscal oversight, compliance, and grant management, ensuring responsible stewardship of public funds.

Program Coordinator Lonnie Jenkins brings both professional and lived experience to the role, with a background in personal development, community organizing, and workforce programming serving low-income communities. Program Assistant Keyturah Moore, a longtime Ithaca resident, brings lived experience navigating economic hardship and provides participants with practical guidance and mentorship.

Together, GIAC's infrastructure and HETP's experienced leadership ensure effective implementation, strong partnerships, and measurable community impact.

Describe your staffing plan for the proposed project. Indicate what percentage of each staff member's time will be allocated to this project and how many other projects, in addition to the one proposed, each staff member will be responsible for. If you are requesting funds to pay for staff salaries, please explain how the proposed project will be impacted, if full funding is not awarded. If the project is collaborative, explain how participating organizations will work together and who will be the lead.

HETP is staffed by one full-time Program Coordinator and one full-time Program Assistant. Each position allocates 100% of their time to HETP and is not responsible for overseeing other GIAC programs. Core responsibilities include curriculum development, classroom instruction, individualized case management, employer and internship coordination, partnership management, outreach initiatives and recruitment, data tracking, reporting, and ongoing alumni follow-up support.

Because HETP serves adults facing multiple barriers — including housing instability, mental health challenges, childcare needs, transportation and inconsistent work history — staff provide intensive one-on-one coaching in addition to structured classroom training. Case management, internship placement, stipend tracking, and employer engagement require consistent staff oversight to ensure participants successfully complete training milestones and transition into employment.

If full funding is not awarded, the Program Assistant's hours would be reduced, resulting in decreased program capacity. This would likely require reducing the number of participants served per cohort, limiting internship placement hours, lowering stipend amounts or reducing the number of stipend milestones available, and scaling back supportive services such as individualized coaching and extended alumni follow-up. Outreach and employer engagement efforts would also be impacted, potentially limiting job placement opportunities.

While GIAC Administration provides fiscal oversight and operational support, sustained staffing at current levels is essential to maintaining the program's intensity and holistic service model. Reduced funding would directly affect participant support, program completion rates, and overall employment outcomes.

FUNDRAISING INITIATIVES

Regarding the secured vs. unsecured funding section of your Excel budget application form, please describe in detail below what fundraising initiatives your organization has undertaken over the past year and/or plans to undertake in the year ahead to identify/secure additional funding and ensure the financial viability of your project/program (even if you have pursued funding that was declined by the time of your IURA application). The IURA is interested in knowing what your organization does or will be doing on an ongoing basis to support the program/project.

HETP maintains financial viability through a combination of secured funding, in-kind contributions, employer partnerships, and proactive grant seeking. The program is supported by the Greater Ithaca Activities Center (GIAC), a department of the City of Ithaca, which provides ongoing operational funding for staffing, facilities, and participant services. HETP also receives competitive United Way funding on a biennial cycle, currently supporting a portion of childcare and special event costs. In addition, HETP consistently applies for local funding opportunities, including the Strategic Tourism Planning Board's Tourism Implementation Grant.

In-kind partnerships significantly strengthen program delivery while reducing costs. Tompkins Workforce NY provides resume and cover letter workshops, mock interviews, and access to subsidized training, allowing participants to practice phone, in-person, and virtual interviewing skills. Community partners such as CDRC, Alternatives Credit Union, and Mid-State COSH deliver workshops in conflict resolution, active listening, financial education, and workplace safety. Tompkins Chamber, and Visit Ithaca provide and excellent guide to local tourism attractions as well as networking opportunities for the program and its participants. Jennifer's Closet, and the Women's Opportunity Center provide etiquette and professionalism training along with professional attire and work uniforms at no cost to participants.

Employer partnerships further support program outcomes by offering on-the-job training placements and potential permanent employment. While these temporary training opportunities represent strong commitments, outcomes depend on participant readiness and employer availability. HETP does not seek reimbursement from nonprofit internship sites; instead, internships are treated as workforce pipelines that provide hands-on experience, professional networking, and realistic pathways to permanent employment.

Looking ahead, HETP continues expanding partnerships to meet emerging participant needs. Collaboration with the Mental Health Association has strengthened the curriculum in wellbeing and provides a trusted referral resource for participants experiencing mental health challenges. A partnership with a local community garden introduces food growing and preparation skills, promoting financial sustainability amid rising grocery costs. By continuously identifying new funding opportunities and responsive partnerships, HETP ensures its training model evolves alongside the barriers affecting participants. This diversified approach sustains high-quality programming while serving adults facing employment challenges in Tompkins County.

RE: HETP Application for funding

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to express the City of Ithaca's support for the Hospitality Employment Training Program (HETP) application for grant funding. HETP helps the city's marginalized populations find employment locally in Tompkins County. For over 10 years HETP has provided job readiness and employment training, placing over 200 individuals in the fields of hospitality and office administration. In 2024 HETP received the Howard Cogan Tourism Award from the Tompkins Chambers as a testament to its success.

The City fully supports HETP's efforts to secure funding through the Ithaca Urban Renewal Agency's Economic Development grant process. The continuation of this vital program aligns with our shared goals of creating an inclusive, thriving local economy and a supportive community for all residents.

The City values the work performed by HETP staff, and the outcomes of their efforts are both a social and economic benefit to Ithaca. This funding will allow the program to continue supporting the needs of our community members struggling to find work here.

Sincerely,

Dominick Recckio
Acting City Manager

To whom it may concern:

I am pleased to offer my full support for the Hospitality Employment Training Program (HETP) at the Greater Ithaca Activities Center (GIAC), with which the Tompkins Chamber/Visit Ithaca has proudly partnered since its inception. As the local tourism industry expanded through the development of hotels, restaurants, and attractions, the challenge of finding qualified personnel to meet workforce demands became evident. HETP has played a critical role in addressing this need by providing marginalized community members with a safe space to build essential skills, leading to job training and placement within the hospitality and tourism sector.

The program's personalized, highly tailored approach ensures that each participant is given the individual attention they need to overcome unique challenges. HETP creates an environment in which participants feel valued, empowered, and equipped with the confidence and tools necessary for success. This support system not only enhances job readiness but also fosters long-term stability and improved livelihoods for participants and their families.

In our ongoing partnership with HETP, the Tompkins Chamber & Visit Ithaca has contributed by delivering an "Introduction to Tourism" session, which highlights the diverse range of career opportunities within the tourism industry, the collaborative nature of the sector, its economic impact on the community, and the vital roles the industry supports. We also provide training in customer service, ambassador programs, and destination knowledge trainings, all of which are integral to success in the industry.

Additionally, we have hosted several interns through the program, and proudly employ two HETP alumni in permanent, livable-wage positions. These collaborations have been mutually beneficial, and we remain committed to further strengthening our partnership with HETP.

I wholeheartedly submit this letter of support for the HETP program, recognizing the invaluable contributions it makes to both the individuals it serves and the broader tourism economy. Please feel free to contact me should you require any additional information.

Sincerely,

Peggy Coleman

SUBJECT: Support for the Hospitality Employment Training Program

Mr. Bohn,

I am writing to enthusiastically support the Greater Ithaca Activities Center (GIAC)'s grant application for funding to support the Hospitality Employment Training Program (HETP).

In 2025, Tompkins County allocated $50,000 for the operation of HETP on the recommendation of the Strategic Tourism Planning Board. An additional $50,000 is included in the 2026 budget to support this program. These funding decisions were informed by the strength of the applications and clear alignment with the goals of the County's Tourism Program.

GIAC has demonstrated consistent capacity to deliver this program which serves the most marginalized populations in Tompkins County. Furthermore, this program addresses a key constraint facing the growth of the tourism sector by addressing workforce development.

I wholeheartedly endorse GIAC's grant application and ask that you consider it for funding.

Sincerely,

Nick Helmholdt

Program Matrix Summary

- 1) The Training Level (Green Section) is designed to ensure participants are committed to HETP's mission of employment and self-sufficiency while actively addressing barriers such as housing, childcare, and transportation. Participants are expected to demonstrate professionalism, respectful communication, appropriate workplace attire, punctuality, and accountability, and to actively pursue permanent part-time or full-time employment. Requirements include completing 250 approved program hours, participating in weekly check-ins with HETP staff, and completing at least half of the required curriculum outlined in the Trainee Certification Chart (Wellness, DEI, Networking, Job Readiness Skills, Goal Setting, Financial Management, etc.). Ongoing engagement, consistent progress toward work readiness, and adherence to program expectations are required to remain in good standing.
- 2) The Employment Level (Blue Section) supports participants who are employed or job-ready by reinforcing professional behaviors, addressing remaining barriers, and strengthening long-term career stability. Participants must continue to meet all expectations outlined in the Training Level while completing required milestones, including 250 approved program hours, regular check-ins with HETP staff, completion of at least half of the curriculum topics on the Trainee Certification Chart, and consistent progress toward resolving personal barriers to employment. While at this level, participants may access internships, training stipends, job references, clothing assistance, transportation support, licensing assistance, and industry-recognized certifications. Participants are also expected to complete any assigned internships, accumulate at least 120 hours of permanent employment, and complete an additional 250 program hours, with work and internship hours counting toward this total, before being considered for program completion and advancement to the Program Completion Level.
- 3) The Program Completion Level (Gold Section) recognizes participants who have successfully completed both the training and employment phases of HETP and met all required milestones. Participants at this level have completed a total of 500 approved program hours, demonstrated competency in all required curriculum areas on the Trainee Certification Chart, and made sustained progress in addressing personal barriers to employment. While regular check-ins with HETP staff are no longer required to remain in good standing, graduates are encouraged to stay connected for ongoing guidance and career support. Participants receive a program completion certificate, are invited to a formal graduation celebration with friends and family and may continue to access select program supports on an as-needed basis at the discretion of the Program Coordinator.
- 4) The Not in Good Standing Level applies to individuals who are interested in HETP but have not yet fully enrolled, as well as current participants whose participation has been paused due to incomplete intake requirements or difficulty meeting program expectations. This includes individuals who have not completed required documentation, have not begun approved program hours, or have experienced prolonged disengagement. Participants in this status do not have access to program support or benefits. Re-entry into active participation requires meeting with the Program Coordinator to review readiness, address outstanding barriers, and develop a plan for re-engagement, after which the participant may return to the appropriate active level.

Funding for this program has been provided by the City of Ithaca Community Development Block Grant Program, The Strategic Tourism Planning Board and The United Way of Tompkins County.

Program Completion Level:

This section is for participants who have successfully completed both the training and employment phases of HETP and have met all required milestones. Once participants reach the Program Completion Level, regular check-ins with HETP staff are no longer required to remain in good standing. That said, participants are always welcome and encouraged to stay in touch with HETP for check-ins, support, or guidance related to ongoing career goals.

1. 500 Total Program Hours Completed

- Includes time in approved HETP activities or classes (e.g., PROs, BOCES, internships, job search, TC3, UI College Prep, etc.)

2. Weekly Check-ins with HETP Staff

- Conducted in person, via phone, or Zoom
- Used to track hours, set goals, and identify support needs

3. Completion or demonstration of all Curriculum Topics

- Topics include Transportation, Resume Development, Customer Service, Workplace Safety, etc. (All are listed on the Trainee Certification)

4. Progress on Personal Barriers

- Participants have worked with HETP staff and/ or on their own to address needs like housing, childcare, transportation, or mental health, to ensure that they are work ready.

Participants, along with friends and family, will be invited to the next HETP graduation celebration to recognize and celebrate their achievements. Participants will also receive a program completion certificate. Program supports and benefits offered at previous levels may still be available on an as-needed basis, if not already used, and at the discretion of the Program Coordinator.

Not in Good Standing Level:

Pre-Green / Not Yet in Training

This section is for people who are interested in HETP but are not yet fully enrolled. This usually means required intake paperwork has not been completed and/or the participant has not started any approved program hours. Once all required documentation is finished and the participant begins completing acceptable program hours, they will move into the Green Training Level.

Paused or Out of Good Standing

This section also applies to current participants who are having difficulty continuing in the program or are not meeting program expectations at this time. While in this section, participants will not have access to program support or benefits associated with the training and employment levels. To move back into active participation, the participant will meet with the Program Coordinator to talk through next steps and create a plan for re-entry. This plan may include making up missed classes, continuing to work on personal or life barriers, and/or actively searching for and securing employment.

What is

Hospitality Employment Training Program

HETP is another individual social and economic development program offered by the Greater Ithaca Activities Center (GIAC). Founded in 2014, HETP has been delivering free job readiness and skills training to Tompkins County's most marginalized population. Although we are focused on employment we understand that obstacles may arise. We do our best to help eliminate those obstacles.

HETP helps support you in fulfilling your dreams in your desired field of work.

HETP helps you become self-sufficient and achieve your goals.

HETP helps you build long-term connections and community.

HETP provides several classes including customer service skills, public speaking, relationship skills, resume and cover letter writing, interview practice, smart goals, financial skills, conflict de-escalation and more.

Overall HETP strives to provide participants with opportunities to learn skills and gain knowledge that are applicable professionally and personally. We want our participants to gain the information necessary to become the work professionals they want to become with our support.
